

Critical Thinking Bootcamp 2016 Spring

Office for Global Education and Career Development

The International Exchange Center, Global Education and Career Development Office of TMDU will be holding the following workshop to learn and practice Critical Thinking skills, essential tools for problem solving in all areas of life. If you are interested in participating, please submit the application form following the application procedure below. Application deadline is March 17, 5pm.

Course Objectives

- This workshop will explore the basic concept of Opinion-Reason-Evidence that is the foundation of Critical Thinking. It will also help attendees better understand the standards that go hand-in-hand with Critical Thinking, such as Clarity, Accuracy, Precision, Relevance, Depth, Breadth, Logic, Significance and Fairness.
- Through these two days of activities attendees will learn the difference between strong and weak evidence; how to brainstorm and organize their thoughts in order to make a clearer statement; and how to use logic, clarity and accuracy to make their arguments more convincing.

Topics

- Use of case-based topics to practice problem solving and higher order thinking skills
- Activities incorporating mind mapping, and active forms of communication to enable opinion generation
