【About "Find-Your-Role-Model" Session】

We have been holding a series of events called "Find-Your-Role-Model" Session to provide students with opportunities to interact with TMDU alumni and worldwide leaders in health sciences. Through this roundtable-type, relaxed atmosphere event, we hope students will be able to find their role models in order to facilitate their career development in becoming future global leaders.

【About this Session】

In the sixth FYRM session of academic year 2016 we will be hosting Dr. Tomoko Komagata. She has had a very interesting career, especially for those of you who would like to work in the field of global health. After receiving clinical nursing experience in Japan, she worked as a JICA volunteer nurse in Pakistan. After that, she started her career as a researcher. She studied Tropical Medicine and Global Health at graduate school of Nagasaki University, and had fieldwork experiences mainly in Southeast Asian countries. This session will be carried out in a round-table discussion format, and will cover the following points. Everyone is welcome to join us in a hearty discussion.

Dr. Tomoko Komagata

- Inspiration for volunteering overseas, and your role in developing countries
- Learnings from conducting field-work research in developing countries
- Necessary abilities for medical staff to be active internationally
- Advice for students to prepare for volunteering or working overseas

【Eligibility】

- Open to all students, residents, post-docs, and faculty

【Discussion style】

- The guest will share her career experiences, then move on to the roundtable discussion.
- Language(s): Japanese, English

Please join us to learn more about conducting research concerning tropical medicine and hygiene, and what lead to her exciting career path!
